

A Weekly Overview

What are we doing in Class One this week?

*This week we will be having our final transition day. All the children have really enjoyed their time in their new classes as well as having the opportunity to meet new friends.

*Just a polite reminder regarding Sports Day this week - Please can all children wear correct PE kit and have their hair tied back. Thank you.

*Cookery club continues this week! Please can all children bring a named container. Thank you.

Summer Term 2 - Week 5

*Personal, Social & Emotional Development	This week in PSHE, we will be moving up to our new year groups and sharing our experiences with the rest of the children.
*Communication & Language *Literacy	Children will be continuing to write their alternative Handa's Surprise stories this week. Nursery children will be reading Handa's Hen and acting out the story.
*Maths	This week in Mathematics Nursery children will continue to consolidate their 1-1 counting correspondence learning, this will link in with the story of Handa's Hen. Reception children will be revisiting and consolidating their learning on subtraction.
* Understanding the World	Due to transition day we will miss our topic afternoon this week, however we will have healthy eating linked activities out in the classroom.
*Physical Development (PE Day - Wednesday)	This half term we will be outdoors learning different games skills in preparation for Sports Day.
*Expressive Arts & Design	This week in creative the children will be creating a realistic Minibeasts picture using water colours.
